TO

The Secretary to the Government of

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

General & Revenue Departments.

SIR,

With reference to Government Proceedings No. R.901-4/Agri 132-07-2 dated 8th August 1908, sanctioning the grant of a Takkavi loan of Rs.5000/- to Mr. Guruvareddy of Hode, Bangalore Taluk, I have the honor to forward herewith Mr.
Guruvareddy's petition dated 7th July 1909, praying that he may be exempted from paying interest on the loan and -- that he may be permitted to repay the loan in ten instalments instead of five, & the connected records ending with Banga-
-lore Sub Division Officer's docket No.319 dated 28th August
-1910, and a copy of Bangalore Deputy Commissioner's letter No.241 dated 22nd September 1910 on the same subject and to state as follows:-

In view of the fact that the petitioner has suffered some loss on account of the failure of the sugar-cane crop in the year 1908-09 and of other inconveniences that he may have been put to thereby, the period of repayment may be extended to ten years and the number of instalments of ^{repayment} commu-
-ted from five to ten without any ^{remission} remuneration of interest or abatement in its rate. This concession will not cause any loss or inconvenience to Government, while it will have a beneficial effect on enterprising ryots disposed to adopt improved

improved machinery with partial assistance from Government.

It was in fact with such a desire that Government were pleased to sanction the loan in question.

A sum of Rs 603-2-0 has since been paid (12th August 1910) by the petitioner towards the first instalment of the loan.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Revenue Commissioner.

Geo

Letter No. 241 dated 22nd September 1910 from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, to the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore.

With reference to your Official Memorandum No.1306 dated 27th July 1910, forwarding ^{for} ~~the~~ report the petition presented by Guruvareddy of Hudi village in the Bangalore Taluk, praying for the extension of the time from 5 to 10 years for the repayment of the loan obtained by him, I have the honor to state as follows:-

1. A sum of Rs.5000/- at 5% interest ^{re-}payable in 5 annual instalments commencing from May 1910 was advanced to the applicant in October 1908 for the purchase of Sugar cane Mill and other agricultural machinery, sanctioned by Government in their order No. R.901-4 dated 8th August 1908.
2. On 9th July 1909, the loan holder presented a petition to the Revenue Commissioner praying that, as he sustained loss in the sugar cane crop, he may be exempted from paying interest on the loan taken by him and further he may be allowed to repay the loan in ten instalments instead of 5 as already stipulated by him. This petition which was --- received in this Office for disposal with the Revenue Commissioner's Official Memorandum No. 818 dated 17th July 1910, was forwarded to the Bangalore Sub Division Officer for-- report. In reply, that Officer in his No. 773 dated 31st January 1910, stated that as the crops for that year were rather poor the payment of the 1st instalment may be ---- postponed for one year. On a perusal of the connected / records, I found that there were no tangible grounds for recommending either the extension of the period within which the loan should be repaid or the remission of interest ~~rest~~ as prayed for by the applicant and passed orders accordingly on 16th March 1910.
3. As desired in your Official Memorandum under reply

the sum of Rs.603-2-0 paid by the applicant is stated to have been credited in the Bangalore Taluk Treasury on 12th August 1910, the amount of 1st instalment and interest due from him being Rs. 1389-1-0 as specified below:-

1st instalment-----Rs.1198-7-0

Interest on the advance from October 1908 to end of June'09 187-8-0

Interest for late payment-----3-2-0

Total:- Rs.1389-1-0

4. The Bangalore Sub Division Officer whose opinion was called for regarding the petitioner's prayer to extend the period for repayment of the advance states that Guruvareddi has shown no reason for a reconsideration of the orders already passed in the matter and no case either for extension of time or remission of interest is made out. In view of the above circumstances and also of the remarks made by Government in the Administration Report of 1908-09 referred to by the Assistant Commissioner, I am not in favour of recommending, in modification of my previous order, for any extension of time being granted to the applicant for the repayment of the loan.

5. The connected file of records ending with the Bangalore Sub Division Officer's docket No.319 dated 1st instant is herewith sent for reference and kind return.

On an application from Mr Gurnavarddi that, on account of the heavy loss he sustained in his Sugar-cane Crop 1908-9, the time for the repayment of this loan may be extended to 10 years & the interest thereon may be waived, ~~the matter was enquired into~~ it was ascertained that he planted about 35 acres of his land with Sugar-cane but realised a very poor crop. The Dy Commr, Bangalore does not view this as a sufficient ground for granting any concessions.

But the Res. Commr ^{is of opinion} considers that ^{some} of the concessions ^{is} granted in consideration of the loss the applicant has sustained it will serve as an encouragement to others who may desire to introduce improved agricultural machinery not to ignore such
